Onondaga County Postponing Civil Service Exams for the Month of March

Individuals scheduled to take an exam should not report for testing

SYRACUSE, N.Y. – In light of the recent directive from Governor Cuomo limiting public gathers, the Onondaga County Department of Personnel, in consultation with the County Executive’s Office, is postponing any civic service exams for the month of March. Exams were scheduled to take place at Onondaga Community College.

The Department of Personnel will work with individuals directly to inform them when new dates are scheduled. Members of the community are also encouraged to check the Onondaga County Personnel webpage for updates.
